OFFICE OF THE GOVERNOR

STATE OF MONTANA

MARC RACICOT
GOVERNOR

STATE CAPITOL
HELENA, MONTANA 59620-0801

Greetings from the Big Sky Country:

Treasures abound in Montana and what better way to find them than in the 2000-2001 Made In Montana Products Directory. The directory is a compilation of products, which are made by hardworking Montanans, who are discovering ways to creatively add value to their local economy and to the overall economy of Montana.

The 2000 edition features three categories which list unique Made In Montana products, stores that feature these products, as well as Marketing Assistance Providers to help entrepreneurs and business owners market their products and businesses. The directory is distributed free of charge to individuals and businesses worldwide that are interested in purchasing quality Montana products.

By the beginning of 2001, the Made In Montana Program will have assisted in promotion of over 23 million products, which bear the Made In Montana or Grown In Montana logo! "Made In Montana" signifies a commitment to quality craftsmanship.

I am proud to present you with a copy of the 2000 – 2001 Made In Montana Products Directory. Please join me in Capturing the Spirit of Montana by purchasing Made In Montana products.

Sincerely,

A handwritten signature in black ink, appearing to read "Marc Racicot".

MARC RACICOT
Governor

New Reorder Address Change

IMPORTANT: Orders cannot be accepted unless the following agreement is completed and signed.

MADE IN MONTANA LOGO AUTHORIZATION AGREEMENT

The "Made in Montana" logo was developed for the State of Montana for exclusive use on products made or produced in Montana. Value-added is defined as enhancing raw materials from within Montana. I agree to use the logo only on products which are 50% or greater value-added or manufactured inside the State of Montana. I understand that to do otherwise would be a violation of the authorization to use the trademarked logo.

Wild West Coffees are hand blended in the mountains of Bozeman, Montana

Yes, the West was Wild. But there was always a sense of pride in hard work, great craftsmanship, and a handshake was a cowboy's honor. At Wild West Coffee, we are proud to have kept that tradition alive and well. We hand blend our five coffees so that they are as original as the Wild West. You can see abandoned ghost towns, old homesteads, and even a gunfight in lots of places...but you can only taste the Old West in Wild West Coffee.

BIG SKY AND BEYOND

A COLLECTION OF HORSE TALES
AND WESTERN VERSE

A VAGABOND BOOK
BY EDWARD W MANNING

As reviewed by the Missoulian: Big Sky and Beyond: A collection of Horse Tales and Western Verse By Edward W. Manning (Vagabond Books, 104 pages, paperback $9.95)

"With a worked out patch of ground, one rusty plow, and a tired ol' mule fit only fer crow bait, that sunset glow to the faraway west set mah mind to thinkin'."

With those words, Edward W. Manning begins his stories of hitting the trail and ending up in Montana.

Manning and Ol' Leaner teamed up 'bout the time Manning decided to head west. That "ugly old cayuse" is featured prominently in many a tale throughout the book.

A man with many vocations, Manning tells stories to keep the past alive for future generations. He admits stretching the truth a mite - so take these tales with a grain of salt. A retired teacher, member of the VFW and American Legion, he has been featured in many publications and is a byline columnist for the Starburst Journal of The International Society of Authors and Artists.
